Truro Center for the Arts at Castle Hill offers a limited amount of Work Study positions and a Ding Watson Scholarships (this is for Truro Residents only). Castle Hill requires 1.5 hours of work for 1 hour of course work for Work Study. Work Study is for adults who have a strong desire to learn about a certain craft / art form but who may not have the opportunity to take our classes without financial assistance. Other opportunities include setting up for special events, posting fliers to area establishments, documenting classes through photography and working with our youth programs. We also do unpaid Internships with College Credit. If you would like to be considered for a work study grant, or an Internship, please complete this form and return it to our office by May 1st, 2010.

I understand many Work Study positions are on-the job-training in nature and can provide me valuable experience. However, my commitment to these positions requires a strong work ethic. A strong work ethic requires that I be:

Dependable – Arrive on time; at the times I am expected

Maintain Confidentiality – Protect the information I am entrusted with

Responsible – Complete all tasks assigned; promptly and accurately

Self Starter – When assigned tasks are completed; actively seek additional assignments

Communication – Encourage open communication with supervisor, fellow employees and the public

In addition, I understand that the failure to maintain the work ethic expected of the position may be grounds for Work Study termination.

To be considered for work study, please enclose a check for $15, this is non refundable.

[] Enclosed is my check for the amount of $15 (please make it out to Castle Hill)
